

LESSON ELEVEN
TOPIC: FATHERS, WHERE ARE YOU?
TEXT: LK 11:21-22

MEMORY VERSE: Prov. 20:7 "The just man walks in his integrity: his children are blessed after him" (KJV).

CENTRAL TRUTH

God should boast of our present day fathers in constantly feeding their children and household with the word of God for their growth.

INTRODUCTION

The Bible already says that the man reflects the glory of the man (1Cor 11:7). If there is no glory upon the life of the man as a result of spiritual immaturity what glory will the woman and the children reflect? May God cause fathers to rise to spiritual maturity, in Jesus name.

LESSON OUTLINES:

1. The Roles of a father: Deut 6:6-7, Prov. 13:24; 1 Thess 2:11-12, Jos 24:15
2. The responsibility of a father is great
 - i. He is the head of the home: As the husband and father, God has made him responsible for the wellbeing of his home. He is responsible for leading the family spiritually, teaching God's principles and disciplining children with the mother assisting in these duties.
 - ii. Provider: The father is expected to provide for the financial and material needs of his family, allowing them to live comfortably.

- iii. Role model: the Father is a role model for his children, demonstrating the values and behaviours he wants them to learn and emulate. Fathers should not tell lies (in front of their children) or take the wife for granted when he does not show love for wife, his children will see women as objects to be used and they have learned such a wrong lessons from him.
- iv. Loving and compassionate: The father is called to love his children unconditionally showing compassion for their needs and concerns.
- v. Spiritual leader: The father is tasked with leading the family in prayer, scripture reading and teaching them about God's word and principles.

QUESTIONS

- 1. Can fathers afford to be spiritual babies?
Should fathers be leaders also in the Church?

CONCLUSION

If a man/father does not say anything, nothing will stand and everything will fall. This is why fathers cannot afford to be spiritual babies. Fathers should be strong spiritually. God forbid that a man is not spiritually strong when the devil comes to attack the home (Lk 11:21-22). May God cause fathers to rise to spiritual maturity, in Jesus name Amen.
