

LESSON FIFTEEN

TOPIC: REBELLION

TEXT: ISAIAH 65:2-3, 1 SAMUEL 15:1-23

MEMORY VERSE: 1 SAMUEL 15:22-23a For rebellion is as the sin of witch craft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.

CENTRAL TRUTH: God detests rebellion, and there is a significant cost associated with its emergence.

INTRODUCTION: It is feasible, yet perilous, to observe a busy individual whose heart is tainted, still offering incense on the altar and igniting strange fire. Isaiah 65:3.

LESSON OUTLINE

1. ALIGN TO DIVINE PURPOSE: 1 Samuel 15:1-3, Ephesians 2:10.

Samuel reminded King Saul of his anointing as King over Israel and the directives for the battle against Amalek, ensuring that the vision serves as a guide. By aligning with God's purpose, we can keep rebellion at bay. We must listen to God's voice without adding or omitting anything.

2. PRIDE ENTERS WHEN WE STOP FOLLOWING: 1 Samuel 15:11-12, 14-15

When a leader or Christian worker disobeys their leader or begins to act against the leadership, pride and arrogance take over. Hebrews 13:17. While it is natural to aspire to leadership, it is essential to recognize that being an effective leader also requires being a good follower. Many prefer to lead rather than follow, which is a tactic of the gates of hell against the church.

3. MEN PLEASING IS DANGEROUS: 1 Samuel 15:24, Ephesians 6:6

A leader who prioritizes the approval of the people over obedience to God gradually becomes a rebel, and this attitude can influence others. Aaron, who should have upheld the truth, chose to appease the people - Exodus 32:1-4. Acts 5:29.

QUESTION:

1. What actions should we take when we find ourselves in rebellion?
2. If our leader engages in rebellion, and we follow suit, who bears the consequences?

CONCLUSION:

Rebellion can insidiously begin without our awareness, but once identified, it must be addressed - 1 Samuel 15:16. Furthermore, rebellion is not limited to subordinates; even a superior or master can rebel.
