

LESSON SEVEN
SUB-THEME FAMILY VICES 1
TOPIC: REMISS
TEXT: 1SAM 2:22-31

MEMORY VERSE: Pro 23:23 "by the truth, and do not sell it, also wisdom and instruction and understanding" (NKJV).

CENTRAL TRUTH

To remind parents on the need to fulfill their obligation in child upbringing. Neglect is the fan that steers our children to error.

INTRODUCTION

Remiss according to Oxford dictionary is the act of failing or neglect to fulfill or perform responsibilities, duties or obligations. It is the act of abandoning or negligence to one's responsibility. Remiss is a strong vice tormenting like wide fire which has ravaged many families.

Parents can save themselves from many heartaches and sorrows in later life by intentionally disciple and instructing their children in the way of the Lord on time and never give up on any children.

Lesson outlines

1. Biblical characters who neglected their duties as parents: 1 Sam 3:12-14, 1 Sam 8:1-5, 2 Sam 15:12 - 18, 13:23-33.
 2. Ways to intentionally disciple our household: Gen 18:19, Deut 6:6-8; Prov. 22:6, Eph 6:1-4.
 3. The dangers of neglect of our responsibilities in the family: Gen. 4:8-9, 1 Sam 2:30-36, 4:17-19, 2 Sam 16:20-21, Rev 21:8.

1. Biblical characters who neglected their duties as parents: 1 Sam 3:12-14, 1 Sam 8:1-5, 2 Sam 15:12 - 18, 13:23-33. Eli failed in his responsibilities as a father, hence, his children (Hophni and Phinehas) knew not the Lord (1 Sam 2:12). Eli knew the sins of his sons yet, he did not restrain them.

Samuel a great prophet chosen by God from his childhood could not have a successor among his sons because he failed in his duty as a parent.

2. Ways to intentionally disciple our household: Gen 18:19, Deut 6:6-8; Prov. 22:6, Eph 6:1-4.

The bible recommended several ways parents can intentionally disciple their household thus, being role models, teaching diligently unto our children, training taken them to the Church whenever we are going and not leaving them at home.

3. The dangers of neglect of our responsibilities in the family: Gen. 4:8-9, 1 Sam 2:30-36, 4:17-19, 2 Sam 16:20-21, Rev 21:8

Premature death both on the child and parent. The sons of Eli were killed in a battle and in the long run the priesthood was taken away from his lineage (1Sam 2:27-31)

It results to heartaches and sorrow in later life. Samuel a great prophet could not have a successor. Deny joy to some parent at old age.

Question

Highlight how best to deal with the virus of remiss in our Christian lives. 1Cor 8:9-12, 1 Tim 4:11-16

CONCLUSION

Remiss an unpopular sinful action remains a strong vice that may deny some parents joy at old age, if not checked and corrected. If we fail as parents to train our children, we will be left with the option to repair adults which is a more tedious and difficult task than training a child. We must catch them young and ensure they remain with Christ till the end.
