

LESSON FOUR
TOPIC: ABRAHAM
TEXT: GEN 12:1-5, 18-19

MEMORY VERSE: Rom 4:20 "he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God (NIV).

CENTRAL TRUTH

To encourage believers to emulate Abrahams role in the family.

INTRODUCTION:

Abraham was a man truly loved by God because he lived a godly lifestyle. He was known to be wholeheartedly committed to an ultimate and faithful relationship with God. His unwavering trust and willingness to obey God's command unconditionally was a clear indication of the strength of their relationship. Their friendship blossomed to the extent that God boasted that Abraham would surely lead his household in the way of the Lord. Of a truth, Abraham and his family were blessed to be a blessing to generations unborn. Abraham called for family as well as everyone else God placed under him. He led by example and purposed to have a legacy of goodness in his family and beyond a pattern for all fathers who truly love God and seek to do his will.

Lesson Outlines:

1. Abraham's tracts as a true disciple Gen 12:1-5, 13: 7-9, 18:19, 23-33, Matt 5:14-16, Heb 11:8-9, 17.

2. Lessons drawn from Abraham as a discipler in the family.

1. Abraham tracts as a true disciple. Abraham set a pattern of robust followership for today's disciples of Christ by trusting and obeying God. He was a man of peace, an intercessor, compassionate, hospitable, trustworthy and above all, acknowledge God in every situation. His way of Life was well known and pleasing to God.

2. Lessons drawn from Abraham as a discipler in the family.

The foundation Abraham laid in leading his family and people around him to love and obey God run through generations. His various acts of hospitality, obedience and faithfulness helped to spread awareness of God to other nations. Believers are urged to emulate Abraham as a role model in family discipleship.

QUESTION

Abraham trusted God when many of us would not have discussed in the light of Gen. 22:1-3

CONCLUSION

Abraham blessings also include his lifestyle, conduct and Faith.
