

LESSON NINETEEN

TOPIC: THE ATTITUDE AND HABITS OF A LOYAL INDIVIDUAL TOWARDS HIS CHURCH

TEXT: 2 Kings 2:3

MEMORY VERSE: 1 Samuel 15:23 For rebellion is akin to the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is comparable to iniquity and idolatry.

CENTRAL TRUTH: It is essential to protect our hearts from the seeds of hatred or dissatisfaction directed towards our church.

INTRODUCTION:

Loyalty is established on a foundation of faithfulness and commitment. Disloyalty commences when the adversary plants his seeds, which then take root in an individual's heart. Regular pruning is crucial to avert disloyalty. We must consistently eliminate disloyal elements that infiltrate our community. Do not allow the devil to mislead you into believing that other places are more favorable. Genesis 3:1,4;

Lesson Outline

Helpful attitudes and habits

1. He prays daily for the church and its leaders. Colossians 4:2-3

2. He refrains from withholding information from the leaders. Esther 2:21,22

3. He avoids gossip regarding the church and its leaders. Prov. 16:28 'If there are no listening ears, there will be no gossip' 'If they gossip to you, they gossip about you'

4. He does not express offense or speak rudely to his leaders. 1 Sam. 1:15 but instead articulates faith-filled words over his church. Prov. 18:21

5. He consistently invites individuals to church. Inviting others to church is an excellent method of being a soul winner. Mark 1:17

6. He takes notes during meetings while his senior pastor/leader is speaking or ministering. Acts 17:11 and he is protective of his pastor. He is ready to defend against any issues arising from his pastor's errors. 2 Samuel 21:15-17

CONCLUSION:

Remain vigilant – not suspicious, but spiritually watchful – for the warning signs of disloyalty. God rewards loyalty. If you remain dedicated to the individuals He has placed in your life, He will bestow His blessings and favor upon you. Do not hesitate to engage. Participating in ministry work will assist in preventing disloyalty. The devil aims to recruit those who are idle.
