

LESSON EIGHTEEN

TOPIC: THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF LOYALTY

TEXT: 1 Corinthians 16:14

MEMORY VERSE: 1 Corinthians 4:2

"It is required that those entrusted must demonstrate faithfulness."

CENTRAL TRUTH: Loyalty is essential for growth and expansion.

INTRODUCTION

God anticipates a unique covenant loyalty directed towards Him, and no human relationship should undermine this commitment. Loyalty is a commendable quality. It aims to honor God, cherishes the relationship, and God rewards our steadfastness. Loyalty reflects our readiness to remain committed to God's guidance.

Lesson Outline

Principles of loyalty

1. Loyalty originates from the Head. Psalm 133:2

2. Loyalty fosters Loyalty:

a. It ensures the future of your descendants. "And David inquired, Is there anyone left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" 2 Sam. 9:1

b. It advocates for you during challenging times. Esther 6:1-3

3. Disloyalty generates Disloyalty. 1 Kings 18: 3-6

4. Loyalty maintains a singular focus. One cannot be devoted to two organizations and claim loyalty. Matthew 6:22-24

5. Loyalty refrains from forming or joining factions within the church 1 Corinthians 1:11

6. A proud individual cannot exhibit loyalty. Indeed, pride is the root cause of disloyalty. Prov 13:10

7. Loyalty is a fundamental aspect of your character. It must arise from the heart.

8. A Loyal individual does not dismantle what he has constructed. Galatians 2:18

CONCLUSION: In ministries, God imparts the vision to the leader, and it necessitates faith to trust that the leader is receiving guidance from God. Simultaneously, there is no reason why those under leadership cannot express their ideas – however, that discussion should remain within appropriate boundaries.
