

LESSON SIX
TOPIC: WIDOWHOOD
TEXT: 2 KINGS 4:1-7, 1TIM 5: 3-16.

MEMORY VERSE: James 1:27 "religion that God our father accept as pure and faultless is thus: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world" (KJV)

CENTRAL TRUTH

To encourage Christians on the needs to always support widows.

INTRODUCTION

A widow is a woman whose husband died, leaving the family responsibility to her alone. The death of a woman's husband is a great loss to the family especially to the wife of the deceased. In the study, we seek to illuminate the challenges widows face and under score the responsibility of families and the church toward them.

Lesson Outlines

1. Challenges of widowhood Ex. 22:22, 1Kgs 17:20-12, 2Kgs 4:1
2. Biblical solution to the challenges of widowhood Deut 24:17-21. 2Kgs 8 4 - 6 Isa 1:17.

1. Challenges of widowhood Ex. 22:22, 1Kgs 17:20-12, 2Kgs 4:1.

Widowhood is often characterized with challenges including humiliation, ranging from the relative of the husband, culture and dragging of assets. The frequently encounter unfounded acquisitions concerning their spouse's demise. Many are forcefully removed from their homes and they are deprived of their husbands assets. In extreme cases, they are pressured into remarriage and exposed to primitive cultural practices.

2. Biblical solution to the challenges of widowhood Deut 24:17-21. 2Kgs 8 4 - 6 Isa 1:17.

Widows must be protected and the supported by the church, prayed for and not abandoned.

Question

What are the practical ways to support the widows in the family and the church. Deut 14:28-29, Acts 6:1-4, 1Tim 5:3-14, 16.

CONCLUSION

Most widows have become vulnerable people even in our contemporary time. Widows need the support of the church and society at large.