

LESSON EIGHT
SUB-THEME FAMILY VICES 2
TOPIC: INFIDELITY
TEXT: PROV. 5:3-22, 6:20-25

MEMORY VERSE: Job 31:1 "I made a covenant with my eyes, why then should I think upon a maid" (KJV).

CENTRAL TRUTH

Infidelity is the native of the eyes and arithmetic of the heart. We should reiterate the dangers in the family and guide against it.

INTRODUCTION

Infidelity or cheating is the act of being unfaithful to a spouse. It means engaging in sexual or romantic relations with a person other than one's husband, wife or partner, hereby, breaking marital vows. The concept of infidelity is not just restricted to physical intimacy; but also people who engage in emotional affairs. It has eaten deep in our society and entered into the Church. The Church should arise against infidelity.

Lesson Outlines

1. What does the bible say about infidelity? Ex 20: 14, Deut 22:22, Prov. 6:25, Matt 5:27-28, Mk 10:4; Heb 13:4.
 2. Causes of infidelity: Eph 5:25 2 Sam 11:2-5.
 3. How can one avoid infidelity? Gen 39:7-9, 12; Job 31:1, Ps 119:11; Col 3:16
 4. Dangers of infidelity: Prov. 5:3,9-11, 6:27-29, 32-33; 7:19-27.
-
1. What does the bible say about infidelity? Ex 20: 14, Deut 22:22, Prov. 6:25, Matt 5:27-28, Mk 10:4; Heb 13:4.
The Bible views infidelity in marriage as a serious sin against God. It does not have respect for your personality. A little lust of the eyes, to the heart and you are gone. The bible is very - clear on its stand point against it.

2. Causes of infidelity: Eph 5:25, 2 Sam 11:2-5.
Infidelity in marriage is often linked to various underlying issues within the relationship. Some key biblical references highlight that it can stem hence lack of respect for marriage vows, unfulfilled intimacy, unresolved anger or bitterness, neglect of one's spouse, a desire for external validation, low self esteem, walking in the flesh etc.
 3. How can one avoid infidelity? Gen 39:7-9, 12; Job 31:1, Ps 119:11; Col 3:16.
Every couple should make deliberate efforts to fight against infidelity. This can be easily achieved when they are rooted in God's word and grow in their relationship and walk with the Lord Gal 5:16, 24-25, Col 3:1-2, 5

QUESTION

What are the dangers of infidelity: Prov. 5:3,9-11, 6:27-29, 32-33; 7:19-27.

The danger of infidelity is numerous with its adverse effect on the couple, children, the Church and the society at large. It can have a strong negative impact on relationships which leads to anxiety, emotional turmoil for children, breakdown of trust and communication, financial strain, parent-child relationship, suicide and signs of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)

CONCLUSION

Infidelity is an outright sin against God. It does not have respect for your personality say No to infidelity.