

LESSON TEN
SUB-THEME FAMILY VICES 4
TOPIC: SEPARATION
TEXT: 1COR 7:10-11

MEMORY VERSE: 1Cor 7:10 "And unto the married I command, yet not I but the Lord. Let not the wife depart from her husband" (KJV).

CENTRAL TRUTH

To reiterate (repeat) to couples that to separate is not way out in marriage.

INTRODUCTION

Separation is a challenging situation in the family where spouses discontinue living together. It does not dissolve the marriage but rather adjusts the couple's obligations under it in the light of their desire to live separately. This study reveals the dangers associated with separation in Christian marriages and how they can be avoided.

LESSON OUTLINES:

1. What does the bible say about separation? Mal 2:16; Matt 5:32, 1 Cor 7: 10-11.
 2. Consequences of separation in Christian marriage.
 3. How can Christians avoid separation? Mal 2:15, Matt 18: 21-22, Eph 5:17-21, Col 3:12-19.
1. What does the bible say about separation? Mal 2:16; Matt 5:32, 1 Cor 7: 10-11.
God discourages separation in that, by His word it is not good for a man to leave/be alone (Gen 2:18). The bible underscores the sanity of marriage and discourages separation (Matt 19:6)

2. Consequences of separation in Christian marriage.

Separation has the capacity to expose the estranged couples to temptations such as adultery. It can lead to emotional and spiritual distress affecting both individuals and families.

3. How can Christians avoid separation? Mal 2:15, Matt 18: 21-22, Eph 5:17-21, Col 3:12-19.

As followers of Christ, it is essential to understand God's design for marriage and how intentional discipleship can strengthen family bonds and discourage separation. To avoid separation, Christians should prioritize prayers, communication, forgiveness, mutual respect and active participation in Church life.

QUESTION

What are the several reasons for separation? Discuss.

CONCLUSION

Separation is leave-taking without recourse to God. By adhering to biblical principles and seeking spiritual guidance, couples can strengthen their marriages and prevent the challenges that lead to separation.
