

LESSON THREE

TOPIC: TEACH THEM TO AVOID EVIL COMPANY

TEXT: 2COR 6:14-18

MEMORY VERSE: Prov. 13:20. "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed".

CENTRAL TRUTH: ...A child left himself bringeth his mother to shame. Prov.29:15. The foundation for avoiding bad company is laid when the child is tender and not when the skin has grown tough.

INTRODUCTION: The Lord commands every parent to train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Prov.22:6. Allowing the young ones to have their way all the time is erroneous and can lead them into destructive lifestyle. Prov 22:15. Naturally, children have the propensity to do the wrong things. Failure to impact them positively early enough may lead to losing them.

Let them understand that the wages of sin is death. Rom 6:23. Nothing profitable comes from a sinful life. 1 Cori 15:33 Associating with immoral individuals leads to negative influence.

3. Avoid the seat of the mockers. Those who make caricature of worshipping and serving God are agents of deception. Teach the children to cut off from any relationship that will make them despise God. Getting to that level of ungodliness takes the special grace of God to turn back. Teach them to run away from every ungodly enticement. Prov 1:10, 14:12.
